

Happy Fall Y'all..... Here's hoping cooler weather is on the way. This year we are looking into new ways to celebrate with the children. We don't quite have anything finalized yet, so keep an eye on the bulletin. As soon as we have all of our ducks in a row, we will put out an announcement.

God presents us with many opportunities to teach the next generation. We must join him where he is at work. Children need much guidance, you may not realize when they are watching and learning from you. I encourage you to talk with children about Jesus at every opportunity, you may be the one God is using in that child's life.

who does not follow the advice of the wicked
or take the path of sinners
or join a group of mockers!
² Instead, his delight is in the Lord's instruction,
and he meditates on it day and night.
³ He is like a tree planted beside streams of water
that bears its fruit in season
and whose leaf does not wither.
Whatever he does prospers.*
