

Knock! Knock! Who's there? Revelation 3:20

Introduction: Great come back for Knock! Knock! Jokes.

Text: Picture of Jesus Christ in a royal robe, holding a lantern, standing in front of a heavy door without a knob, knocking on the door. No answer. Will anyone let him in?

Promise: If the door opens - He will come in.

“Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, Knock and the door shall be opened to you.”

God is a seeking God. Luke 19:10 “The Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which is lost.”

Men run from the God who wants to bless them.

Your heart

Who's Knocking?

It is the Lord Jesus Christ! God's only begotten Son.

He is the one who loves you most.

He is the one who suffered and died for you.

He is the one who wants to take you to heaven.

What if the president knocked at your door? Would you answer the door? Great honor? Would you let him in?

Jesus Christ. The Lord of the universe is knocking at your heart.

 Who can open the door of your heart?

Only you can open the door!

Jesus Christ will never enter an unwelcome heart.

A shut door against him

Greatest sin of the world
